

BROWN COUNTY, INDIANA

CHAMBER of COMMERCE BOARD OF DIRECTORS

The Brown County Chamber of Commerce is a not-for-profit organization established for the purpose of being a valuable resource to all business sectors by providing communication, education and collaborative services between businesses, visitors, residents, and government.

The Chamber's current structure consists of a volunteer board whose members are business owners or involved in a variety of business organizations throughout Brown County. Each member monitors and regularly attends government meetings to keep Chamber members updated on important issues facing businesses in Brown County. Recaps and updates of the meetings are posted on the website and Facebook.

The Chamber board answers all phone and email requests, directing referrals and requests to the appropriate Chamber business members. The website and Facebook are updated on a regular basis.

You can view the Brown County Chamber of Commerce By-Laws, list of current board members and monthly meeting minutes on the official Chamber website theBrownCountyChamber.org.

All board meetings are open to the public, and are held the first Tuesday of each month beginning at 8:00 AM. Meeting locations are posted on the website and email reminders are sent to members on a monthly basis.
